THE SAUSAGE DASH

A whiff of sausage fills the air
I stop a moment, stand and stare
It's time to go and join the queue
And show them just what I can do

I've dreamt all year of being a winner
Racing towards a meaty dinner
Speed and smell and nifty feet
All combine to reach this treat

My name is taken and in I get
Collar held, and stopwatch set
I eye my target down the line
Dreaming of a winning time

Anticipation - "three, two, one"
I'm free to go and off I run
My paws a blur of fur and speed
To get the winning time I need

A lighting sprint of two point three
The winning cairn, I think, is me
But Brodie passes in a flash
I haven't won the sausage dash

But still I've had a lot of fun
Even though I haven't won
Clan Cairn's about the friends we meet
And less about that sausage treat!

Dog Classes £1 per entry for each class
